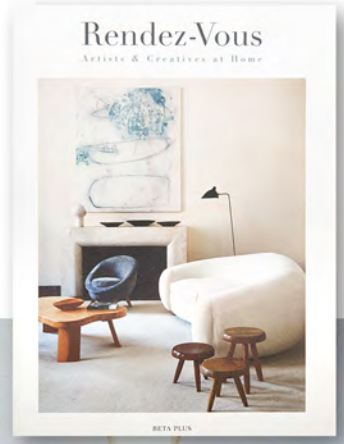
Anita with her daughter Pauline, who has joined the ceramics company Terres de Rêves recently.



The photograph of a Sadhu has been taken by Anita during one of her numerous journeys throughout India.
The sadhus are holy persons in Hinduism and Jainism who have renounced the worldly life.
The vintage low table is from Bea Mombaers (Items).

Unique in its colour and shape, each piece of ceramic is born from the precise and delicate hand of Anita Le Grelle. Elegantly thin materials and subtle shapes leave just enough space for the piece's own freedom… and dreams.
Anita's daughter has become a partner of Terres de Rêves one year ago.
